

PRESS RELEASE

Alexandre Quévat joins our Marseille office

16 May 2024 – Ama Partners welcomes Alexandre Quévat, who has joined us as a Partner to support the growth of the South-East team.

With over twenty years' experience accompanying SME and ETI clients within banking establishments, Alexandre has been involved in several transactions, notably with Crédit du Nord Corporate Finance in Paris, then in the Southeast as Head of Corporate Finance activities for Société Marseillaise de Crédit. Prior to joining Ama Partners, Alexandre was a Director at New Deal Factory, in charge of M&A.

Alexandre holds a DEA in Finance and an Executive MBA from Kedge Business School. He is also a certified Web applications designer.

Alexandre's arrival at the Marseille office reinforces our ambitions in the region, where Ama Partners has been present since the end of 2021.

Alexandre declare: “The Southeast region has an incredibly rich and diverse economic infrastructure, and local companies clearly have a role to play both nationally and internationally. Ama Partners is the right partner to help our managers deploy their most ambitious projects and accelerate their growth.”

About Ama Partners

Ama Partners, formerly Alienor Partners, is an independent consulting firm dedicated to equity financing transactions for small and mid-sized companies. Founded in 2010, Ama Partners has successfully completed a number of divestments, acquisitions, fundraisings and capital reorganizations. Ama Partners provides French and foreign managers with local support and commitment throughout the assignment. Ama Partners is a member of the CNCFA.

For further information: www.ama-partners.com